Bryce Christy, Special Assistant to Michael Toner, joined Bryan Cave in May, 2009.

Prior to joining Bryan Cave, Ms. Christy worked in the communications department at the Republican National Senatorial Committee under Senator John Cornyn. During her tenure there, she provided organizational and logistical support to the NRSC's communications department.

Before joining the NRSC, Ms. Christy served as Staff Assistant to Congressman John Culberson (Texas-07) from 2008 to 2009. She helped draft legislative correspondence on a range of public policy issues, including the Troubled Asset Relief Program (TARP), energy and offshore oil and gas exploration, and the subprime mortgage crisis. She also contributed to the organization and promotion of the Republican New Media Caucus.

Ms. Christy graduated from Washington and Lee University in June 2008 with a B.S. in Neuroscience. While attending W&L, she served in the Wisconsin state delegation to the quadrennial Mock Convention, a nationally-known event that aims to predict the presidential nominee of the political party currently out of office.
