

Darryl Drevna

Policy Analyst

1155 F Street, N.W.
Washington, DC 20004

Phone: (202) 508-6164
Fax: (202) 220-7464
email: darryl.drevna@bryancave.com

Darryl Drevna is a proficient writer with a wide understanding of health care issues, policy and regulatory and legislative processes. Before joining Bryan Cave, Mr. Drevna served at the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services in Washington, DC. His responsibilities included writing and editing written and oral congressional testimony for senior CMS leadership and preparing materials for and briefing agency witnesses. Additionally, he coordinated Agency, Department, and White House clearance processes and assisted in briefing congressional staff on CMS policies.

In the past he covered Medicare, Medicaid and health policy issues as an editor and writer for a variety of publications, including the Kaiser Daily Health Policy Report.

Mr. Drevna has received several honors for his work. For example, in 2005, he received the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services Administrator's Citation in recognition for his work in educating congressional staff on the Medicare prescription drug benefit as part of the Agency's Congressional Outreach Team.

Education

George Washington University, M.A., 2004
Ithaca College, B.A., 2000

Publications

- "Health Savings Accounts Gain Momentum: HSAs Help Shift Responsibility from Employers to Employees" - ABA Trust & Investments, June 1, 2007

Civic Involvement and Honors

Alexandria Volunteer Fire Department, Emergency Medical Technician
Department of Health and Human Services, Secretary's Award for Distinguishes Service, June 2004
Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services, Administrator's Citation, 2005; Administrator's Achievement Award, 2003