Tim Perrin serves as a legislative analyst in our Government Relations practice. Mr. Perrin is responsible for monitoring Congressional and Administrative activities, conducting legislative research and developing lobbying strategies for a variety of clients. Mr. Perrin also lobbies on behalf of clients before Congress and federal agencies.

Prior to joining Bryan Cave, Mr. Perrin was a Government Affairs Representative at the American Association for Geriatric Psychiatry, a national advocacy organization representing physicians and older adults. During his tenure, Mr. Perrin advocated for federal funding for health care programs serving seniors before the Appropriations Committees in both the U.S. Senate and House of Representatives. He also managed the association's nationwide grassroots advocacy program.

Mr. Perrin also served on the staff of U.S. Representative Floyd Spence (South Carolina) as a University of South Carolina Washington Fellow.
