Brandi Zehr is an associate in the Election Law Group and advises political candidates, federal officeholders, political party committees, corporations, trade associations, and other organizations on compliance with all aspects of law concerning the political process, including state and federal campaign finance, ethics, and lobbying laws.

Prior to joining the firm in January 2010, Ms. Zehr was an Associate Counsel for the Republican National Committee. While in law school, she was a law clerk for both the Republican National Committee and the National Republican Senatorial Committee. Ms. Zehr was also the Senior Articles Editor for the William & Mary Bill of Rights Journal and co-founded the school's bipartisan Election Law Society. From 2004 – 2006, Ms. Zehr was a campaign finance analyst with the Federal Election Commission, regularly advising political action committees and political party committees on reporting and compliance issues.
